

Colonel Mark S. Martins
Staff Judge Advocate
Multinational Force—Iraq

Experience

Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (OCJCS)—Deputy Legal Counsel (2003-2005) with duty in Baghdad (June-Nov 2004) as counsel to Commanding General, Multinational Security Transition Command-Iraq

1st Armored Division—Staff Judge Advocate to Commanding General and supervisor of a legal staff of more than 100 military and civilian attorneys and paralegals comprising five offices in Hesse, Germany (2001-2003) and eventually task organized operational law teams in and around Baghdad, Iraq (2003)

XVIII Airborne Corps and Fort Bragg—Deputy Staff Judge Advocate, Fort Bragg, North Carolina (2000-2001)

1st Infantry Division—Deputy Staff Judge Advocate, Wuerzburg, Germany (1998-2000) with duty in Kosovo as Chief of Staff of all U.S. Forces and later Legal Advisor for Commanding General, Task Force Falcon (1999)

Center for Law and Military Operations—Deputy Director, Charlottesville, Virginia (1995-1997)

The Judge Advocate General's School—Professor, International and Operational Law, Charlottesville (1994-1995)

101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) & Fort Campbell—Chief of Administrative Law, Chief of Legal Assistance, Operational Law Attorney, Trial Counsel, Senior Trial Counsel, Fort Campbell, Kentucky (1990-1993)

82d Airborne Division—Infantry Platoon Leader, Assistant Brigade S-4, Brigade S-4, Fort Bragg, North Carolina (1985-1987)

Education

Harvard Law School (J.D., m.c.l. and Law Review, 1990)

Oxford University (Rhodes Scholar 1983-1985, Politics, Philosophy, Economics, B.A., 1st Class Honours, 1985)

United States Military Academy (1st in General Order of Merit and various other honors, 1983)

Military and Professional Schools and Training

National War College—Fort McNair, Washington, D.C. (distinguished graduate, award for research manuscript “Paying Tribute to Reason: Judgments on Terror, Lessons for Security, in Four Trials Since 9/11”, 2005-2006)

Command and General Staff College—Fort Leavenworth, Kansas (Marshall Award as top graduate and other honors, M.M.A.S. awarded following dissertation and defense, 1997-1998)

The Judge Advocate General's School Graduate Course—Charlottesville, Virginia (Dist. Honor Graduate and other honors, including best dissertation, L.L.M., 1993-1994)

Combined Armed Services Staff School—Fort Leavenworth, Kansas (1992)
Judge Advocate Officer Basic Course—Charlottesville, Virginia (1990)
Infantry Officer Basic Course—Fort Benning, Georgia (Dist. Leadership Graduate, 1985)
Ranger Tab, Pathfinder Badge, Expert Infantryman Badge, Senior Parachutist Badge, Air Assault Badge—Fort Benning, Georgia, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, and Fort Campbell, Kentucky (various times between 1981 and 1991)

Publications

“Rules of Engagement for Land Forces: A Matter of Training, Not Lawyering,” Military Law Review 143 (1994): 1-160.
“‘War Crimes’ During Operations Other Than War: Military Doctrine and Law 50 Years After Nuremberg and Beyond,” Military Law Review 149 (1995): 199-227.
“National Forums for Punishing Offenses Against International Law: Might U.S. Soldiers Have Their Day in the Same Court?,” Virginia Journal of International Law 36 (1996): 659-686.
“Deadly Force Is Authorized, But Also Trained,” Army Lawyer, September 2001, 1-16.
“Fee as the Wind Blows: Waivers of Attorney’s Fees in Individual Civil Rights Actions Since Evans v. Jeff. D.,” Harvard Law Review 102 (1989): 1278-1299.
“Habeas Corpus—Collateral Attack on State Criminal Convictions: Teague v. Lane,” Harvard Law Review 103 (1989): 290-300.
“No Small Change of Soldiering: The Commander’s Emergency Response Program in Iraq and Afghanistan,” Army Lawyer, February 2004, 1-20.
Law and Military Operations in Haiti, 1994-95, Charlottesville, VA: Center for Law and Military Operations, 1995.